Introduction to Advocacy for Older People

This training session will provide a brief general introduction to the principles and practice of advocacy and an overview of the needs and benefits of advocacy for older people.

We will also be looking at attitudes to older people and in particular older people with dementia.

This training day is open to anyone with an interest in older people's issues and advocacy.

It is also for people who wish to volunteer.

We will be holding this course from 10.00am - 1.00pm on each of the following dates:

- 27th May 2011
- 7th July 2011
- 15th September 2011
- 17th November 2011
- 19th January 2012
